

Student Affairs Committee: Current Charge (revised in 2011)

This committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending in areas relating to the student services, policies that affect students (other than those topics reviewed by Academic Affairs or Curriculum Committee) or generally to the quality of student life at Central Oregon Community College.

Student Affairs Committee: Proposed Charge

The Student Affairs Committee serves as a forum for reviewing and recommending policies to the COCC President on issues directly impacting COCC students. Additional responsibilities include:

1. Convening as the Student Fee Committee to recommend the initial allocation of student fees and the detailed ASCOCC budget to the Vice President of Student Affairs.
2. Selecting the Distinguished Student Services award recipient each year.
3. Working with the Director of Student and Campus Life, appoint Student Affairs Committee members to serve on the hiring committee for ASCOCC appointed positions.
4. Convening as a Student Concerns Committee should a student-issued concern arise that is not covered by other College processes (e.g., academic policy petition, incident report, grade appeal process).
5. Serving as an advisory board to the Associated Students of COCC, as needed, to provide feedback on potential Bylaw and Constitution changes.
